CANDIDATE FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa & Chippewa Indians

Step 1. Maintaining Appropriate Records:

- a. Candidates are responsible for keeping a record of the total amount or value of all funds and "in-kind" contributions received from GTB Tribal members (including the Candidate's own funds) in support of his/her campaign for elected office.
- b. Candidates are responsible for keeping a record of the amount of any campaign contributions (including the estimated value of any "in-kind" contributions) received from any person/entity who is not a Grand Traverse Band Tribal member, including the name of the person or entity making such contribution.

NOTES: See Article XIII(3) of the Election Regulations for a definition of "in-kind" contributions. For the purposes of this statement, contributions from non-Tribal members includes money or "in-kind" contributions received by the Candidate from non-Tribal member spouses, members of other Indian tribes, non-Indian persons, or any business entity. Candidates may not attempt to avoid the obligation to report contributions received from non-Tribal members by knowingly utilizing GTB members to "pass through" funds or "in-kind" contributions from non-Tribal members with the purpose and intent that the funds/"in-kind" items be directed to support the Candidate's campaign activities.

Step 2. Reporting Campaign Finances: Within five (5) business days after the date of the General Election, all candidates (from both the Primary and General Election) must deliver this Financial Disclosure Statement to the Election Board.

NOTE: Financial Disclosure Statements are public documents and may be made available for inspection or copying by Grand Traverse Band members upon request. The candidate must sign the Financial Disclosure Statement and deliver the Statement to the Election Board by one of the following methods:

- (a) Place the Financial Disclosure Statement in an envelope addressed to the address below, and place the necessary postage upon the return envelope and deposit it in the United States mail, or with another public postage service, express mail service, parcel post service, or common carrier to:

GTB Election Board
c/o Grand Traverse Band Membership Office
2605 N West Bay Shore Dr.
Peshawbestown, MI 49682-9275

- (b) Deliver the Financial Disclosure Statement personally to the office of the Tribal Membership Office.
